"HOP HEADS" IN POLICE COURT

In Judge Murphy's court this morning Carl Crosby, charged with burglarizing the Woodmansee rooming house on Twenty-fourth street, May 25th, waived the privilege of preliminary hearing and, under the consent of the county attorney, he was held to await the action of the district court, his bond being fixed at $500. The complaint in the case alleges that Crosby entered one of the rooms of the Woodmansee block and stole bedding, which he afterwards sold to one of the second-hand stores of the city.

The preliminary hearing of George Stratton was held and the case taken under advisement. His bond was heretofore placed at $500.

It is stated in the complaint against Stratton that, on May 28th, he entered the office of Dr. Ingebreton, in the Eccles building, and stole $35 in cash. He afterwards spent part of the money for clothing. The defendant denied having stolen the money, or that he entered the doctor's office on the day in question, but that he came by the money with which he purchased clothes honestly. Both Stratton and Crosby are "hop-heads."

GOULD ROAD IS AGAIN DAMAGED

The wind storm on the lake Saturday night again crippled the track of the Western Pacific company around the south end of the lake. While the extent of the damage cannot be learned, it is stated that it is such as to necessitate the dispatching of a stock train over the line of the Southern Pacific.

One report is to the effect that four miles of the roadbed of the Western Pacific was undermined and part of the ballast washed away and that it will take several days to repair the damage.

No damage was reported to have been done on the Southern Pacific cut-off across the lake. Owing to the fact that, since the last storm on the lake, the roadbed on the fills has been raised from two to five feet in places, the cut-off is undisturbed by the waves.

Mrs. Mary Larsen, who lives in the same building, says she heard some one climb down from the roof leading to the boy's window at about 4 o'clock and that she is certain that neither she nor the boy can possibly be mistaken in the matter. Mrs. Larsen also states that at about 1 o'clock in the morning she saw a man run across the lot from the Mission house to a point within a few feet of her window and there hide behind a clump of shrubbery. From his hiding place he stepped to the pavement and, after looking in different directions for a moment, ran as fast as he could toward Twenty-second street, along Grant avenue. He was rather tall, wearing dark clothes and a white hat.

This has been known for some time but the extent of the epidemic was not known until today, when the people made an appeal to the government at Mexico City for medical officers and soldiers to enforce quarantine laws. It was stated in the appeal that the civil register
